GEOMETRY

An electric car (battery electric car, or all-electric car) is an automobile that is propelled by one or more electric motors, using only energy stored in batteries. Compared to internal combustion engine (ICE) vehicles, electric cars are quieter, have no exhaust emissions, and lower emissions overall. In the United States and the European Union, as of 2020, the total cost of ownership of recent electric vehicles is cheaper than that of equivalent ICE cars, due to lower fueling and maintenance costs.

The health report, which comes as a result of the car diagnostics test, will give our technicians a better overview of what work the car needs.
